OPHTHALMOLOGY

Dr. Mary Glaze, DVM, MS, DACVO

October 18, 2017

Sponsor - I-Med Pharma

Mary Belle Glaze is a 1976 graduate of Texas A&M University's College of Veterinary Medicine. After 2 years in small animal general practice in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, she returned to academia, completing a residency and Master's degree in veterinary ophthalmology at Michigan State University in 1981. She spent the next 20 years on faculty at Louisiana State University's Veterinary Teaching Hospital, retiring as Professor Emeritus in 2001. That same year she joined the Gulf Coast Animal Eye Clinic in Houston Texas, where she is one of three ophthalmologists on staff.

Dr. Glaze has been a diplomate of the American College of Veterinary Ophthalmologists (ACVO) since 1981 and has served as secretary-treasurer, regent, and president. She was the first woman elected president of the American Society of Veterinary Ophthalmology (ASVO). She has spoken to veterinary groups throughout the world, has authored a variety of journal articles and book chapters, and is the co-author (with Kerry Ketring) of veterinary atlases on feline ocular disease and canine inherited ocular disorders. She is an online consultant for VIN (Veterinary Information Network) and is an adjunct clinical professor at Texas A&M University and Lincoln Memorial University. For fun, she races Corvettes. "If everything seems under control, you're just not going fast enough."

Some of the topics to be discussed include: Refractory Corneal Ulcers, Non-Ulcerative Corneal Disease, Canine and Feline Uveitis, Lids and Lashes, Buff and Turf: Acute Care for the Critical Eye and Ophthalmic Potpourri.

GERONTOLOGY

Dr. Mary Gardner, DVM

December 13, 2017

Sponsor - Faithful Companion

There is nothing better to Dr. Gardner than a dog with a grey muzzle or skinny old cat! Her professional goal is to increase awareness and medical care for the geriatric veterinary patient and to help make the final life stage to be as peaceful as possible, surrounded with dignity and support for all involved. A University of Florida graduate, she discovered her niche in end of life care is the co-founder of Lap of Love which has over 100 veterinarians around the country dedicated to veterinary hospice and euthanasia in the home. Dr. Gardner and Lap of Love have been featured in Entrepreneur Magazine, The New York Times, the Associated Press, The Doctors and numerous professional veterinary publications. When not working, she loves to play golf and spend as much time with family and friends as possible.

Some of the topics that will be discussed include: What Matters Most In the End, Geriatrics: Practical Treatment and Care for the Aging Pet. The Caregiver's Dilemma – Assessing Quality of Life. Veterinary Hospice – It's not about prolonging suffering. The Art of Euthanasia.
